

Abstract

Neoadjuvant treatment of inflammatory or T3 to T4 breast cancer is carried out by administering to such patients a number of cycles of chemotherapy treatment in which DPPE first is administered followed by a combination of anthracyclines and taxanes.